CHIME THROUGH THE YEARS

“YELLOW CARD” BY MAIA VOTA FOR CONNECTHER

CHIME FOR CHANGE Through the Years: The Female Fabric is a series curated by CHIME Managing Editor Mariane Pearl featuring stories from the CHIME journalism platform archives by women around the world.

The story of the Burlington High School girls' soccer team and the launch of their equal pay campaign.

The ConnectHER Film Festival provides a powerful platform for young storytellers to highlight critical issues facing women and girls. Students submit original short (3 to 6 minute) films focused on issues such as girls' global education, ending violence against women, redefining beauty, and girls in tech.

Maia Vota is an 18-year-old filmmaker who lives in Burlington, Vermont. She is currently finishing high school and hopes to study film production in college. Most recently, Maia was one of three student winners of the AT&T Film Awards. Her goal for 2020 is to direct a narrative film.
