CHIME THROUGH THE YEARS

“THE CHAIN BREAKER” BY MUHAMMAD WASEEM FOR CONNECTHER

CHIME FOR CHANGE Through the Years: The Female Fabric is a series curated by CHIME Managing Editor Mariane Pearl featuring stories from the CHIME journalism platform archives by women around the world.

Sameer challenged the “no inheritance policy” which is considered taboo in his area. When women ask for the right her family member do social boycott her. Sameer stood firm and despite all those hurdles he asked for his mother right and now fighting with his paternal uncles through legal procedure.

The ConnectHER Film Festival provides a powerful platform for young storytellers to highlight critical issues facing women and girls. Students submit original short (3 to 6 minute) films focused on issues such as girls' global education, ending violence against women, redefining beauty, and girls in tech.

I am Muhammad Waseem from Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Pakistan. I am studying my last semester in Journalism and Mass Communication at Abdul Wali Khan University Mardan. I have produced some documentaries on the topic of Climate Change. I have also worked as internee at Radio Mardan.
