CHIME THROUGH THE YEARS

“A SOCIAL STATEMENT” BY KYLIE HUERTA FOR CONNECTHER

CHIME FOR CHANGE Through the Years: The Female Fabric is a series curated by CHIME Managing Editor Mariane Pearl featuring stories from the CHIME journalism platform archives by women around the world.

Catcalling, harassment, wage inequality. They are all things that are considered to be a part of growing up as a young woman. I wanted to create a film that would empower young women to speak out against the sexual harassment that is considered normal and to take a look at the harm it causes

The ConnectHER Film Festival provides a powerful platform for young storytellers to highlight critical issues facing women and girls. Students submit original short (3 to 6 minute) films focused on issues such as girls' global education, ending violence against women, redefining beauty, and girls in tech.

Kylie Huerta is a student at Lane Tech college prep interested in film editing and producing. She loves being able to express my ideas through film and wants to continue to be creative throughout her life.
